8.00 pm

1. Present

Glen Williams (Chair), Giles Bennett (Clerk), Elizabeth Wetherell, Peter Jackson, Janet Jackson, Malcolm Morgan, Beverley Morgan, Tony Snowdon, Jane Hill, Margaret Rollinson, William Croad, Ian Hedley.

2. Apologies

Helen Bennett (Treasurer), Wendy Ormsby, Robert Askin

3. Previous meeting's minutes

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Peter Jackson and agreed to be an accurate representation of the business transacted at that meeting.

4. Bench

The bench has been damaged whilst in storage. Robert Wood will be chasing up its repair and will update us. Glen reiterated his commitment to having something in place by the end of the year, come what may.

5. Tidy up of the Avenue / bulbs / wildflowers /

This has been scheduled for November 15th, at 2.00pm, and volunteers will be enticed with the promise of a beer or two in return for their services.

6. Footpath

A number of people raised concerns about the state of the verges. It was agreed that whilst tidying up the Avenue we would see if it was possible to tidy the path up and cut back overgrown bushes.

7. Lights

One or two outages were reported - they had already been reported for repair with Acorn along with the others.

8. Rabbits on the riverbank

Beverley and Malcolm had found their own solution - ferret rental.

9. Christmas Tree / Santa visit

Santa will be coming back to the village this year - date and arrangements to be confirmed.

10. Any other business

Poppy wreath has been ordered and will be in place from.

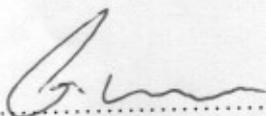

Phone box is not working - will be reported.

Superfast broadband - those who have upgraded seem to be pleased with the speeds which their getting.

Tony Snowdon wondered if anyone else had noticed issues with rats - "nothing unusual for the time of year" seemed to be the general view.

Margaret raised the issue of the flap gate into the canal - Glen will investigate and if necessary we'll allocate some people on 15th November, if there are sufficient volunteers.

There being no other business, the meeting closed at 8.40, with the date and time of the next meeting to be arranged.
