Matters arising from previous meeting

1. The leaflets advertising the meeting were to be organised for the next meeting.
2. Letters had been written by D Rollinson, C Petch and Brian Metcalf to Yorkshire Water, Selby District Council and The National Rivers Authority but to date no replied had been received.

Planning Application for Mr N Naylor for a 2-Storey extension at Airebank House.

It was noted the windows already built into the extension which was at date practically complete were of a different type to the windows on the plan received.

Post Office Lane

A complaint was heard regarding Davidson Farmers erecting a fence and making Post Office Lane too narrow for farm traffic. Mr B Metcalf advised the Parish Meeting that it was a civil matter between the complainant and Davidson Farmers, but the Parish Meeting was to contact NYCC at Northallerton to find out the status of the lane.

Dr S C Smeed and Partners

The above were applying for permission to open a surgery in Monk Fryston for dispensing drugs. A letter was distributed explaining the area covered for this service.

Any other business

Mr Metcalf was asked about the possibility of a 30 mph Speed Limit up to the canal bridge.

There being no other business the meeting closed at 8.20 pm.
